Promise Made That if German Sub

By the Associated Press.
Washington, Jan. 7.—Two communications from Germany reached the United States today—one containing a proposal to pay an indemnity for the Americans lost in the Lusitania disaster which may bring negotiations on that subject to a conclusion, and the other conveying assurances that German submarine commanders operating in the Mediterranean would not torpedo non-combatant ships of any character without warning them and according safety to their passengers and crews.

The communications were delivered to Secretary Lansing by Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador. The secretary immediately sent them to President Wilson.

Official Washington tonight considered that America and Germany at last were near a final agreement regarding the conduct of submarine warfare. Officials made no attempt to conceal their gratification at the attitude Germany apparently had assumed. It was considered to be virtually in harmony with the American viewpoint.

Other Guarantees Coming.

Tension regarding the entire submarine question seemed to have lessened considerably. Austria in its reply to the last Ancona note having assured the United States of its intentions to operate in accordance with due regard for international law and the principles of humanity, Turkey and Bulgaria, it is understood, next will take steps to give such guarantees. It is stated authoritatively that Germany and Austria-Hungary will use their influence to accomplish this end.

The Lusitania controversy, except for the wording of the agreement to be entered into, is considered in Teutonic circles here virtually ended.

Under the terms of the proposal submitted for the approval of the United States, Germany, while offering to pay an indemnity, makes the reservation that no admission of wrongdoing thereby is involved. It is contended that the Lusitania was sunk as an act of reprisal for the British blockade of Germany.

While Secretary Lansing is understood not to have indicated to Count von Bernstorff whether the proposal was satisfactory, a number of officials in a position to be familiar with the American attitude indicated that it would be accepted.

Assurances Broad.

The assurances regarding the conduct of submarine warfare in the Mediterranean, obviously prompted by the sinking of the British steamer Persia with a loss of two American lives, will be broader in their scope than the promises made after the Lusitania disaster covering the operations of submarines in the North Sea and adjacent waters. The latter guaranteed only that "liners" should be immune from attack without warning. The assurances regarding the Mediterranean operations include privately-owned ships of every character, freight as well as passenger vessels, provided, of course, they do not attempt to escape or offer resistance.

It was revealed today, too, that in the reply to the last note regarding the William P. Frye, the Berlin foreign office agreed with the American view that small boats under all conditions shall not be considered a place of safety for persons leaving a ship about to be attacked.

The German government apparently not certain whether a German submarine sank the Persia, promises the United States in today's communication that should it develop that such was the case the German will be investigated and submitted to a prize court proceeding and that if the commander discloses his orders he will be punished and reparation made for the death of or injuries to American citizens.

Consideration of the German assurances and of the apparent attitude of Austria-Hungary as reflected in dispatches from Ambassador Penfield at Vienna led officials to believe that the sinking of the Persia might not result in difficulties as grave as at first were feared.

GREAT GOVERNMENT MAJORITY FOR COMPULSION BILL RE- ASSURING TO CABINET.

Efforts to Get Labor Members to Reconsider Resignations Prove Unavailing.

By the Associated Press.

London, Jan. 7.—The political situation today was calmer after the overwhelming vote obtained by the government in the house Thursday night on the first reading of its compulsion bill. The reassuring size of the government majority in the lower house of parliament offset to a considerable degree the anti-compulsory vote of the last labor congress, which also was partly discounted by the attitude of such important labor leaders as Arthur Henderson, who resigned as president of the board of education and John Ward, George Nicoll Barnes and John Hodge, members of the house of commons.

The position of the labor congress was too hasty and ill-considered to be regarded as reflecting the actual feeling of the labor men of the country.

Parliament will not sit again until Monday. The indications are that the compulsion bill will be passed through the house of commons in order that it may reach the house of lords in ample time for passage before the end of the month. In some quarters talk of a general election still persists, but it is certain that no considerable part of even the opponents of compulsion do not want to resort to the ballot.

Gosse is generally agreed that Prime Minister Asquith will have little difficulty in filling the vacancies in his cabinet. To the American reader one of the most interesting suggestions heard in London today was the proposal to introduce the referendum as the alternative for a general election, if dangerous hostility appears to be developing in the country at large during the later stages of the compulsion bill before its enactment.

Attempts were made to induce the labor members of the government who have resigned to reconsider their position. Arthur Henderson conferred with Premier Asquith, but late last night it was understood that Mr. Henderson and his colleagues, William Brace and George P. Roberts, adhered to their determination to quit the ministry.

Consideration of the German assurances and of the apparent attitude of Austria-Hungary as reflected in dispatches from Ambassador Penfield at Vienna led officials to believe that the sinking of the Persia might not result in difficulties as grave as at first were feared.

Chicago Druggists Taking Advantage of Grippe Patients

By the Associated Press.

Chicago, Jan. 7.—Forty druggists of Chicago were summoned before Dr. John D. Robertson, city health commissioner, today to answer charges of city inspectors that they have been guilty during the present epidemic of grippe of selling misbranded, short weight and spurious aspirin.

Inspectors regard it as probable that other cities also have been imposed upon.

The druggists asserted that if the charges were true the fault lay not with the retailers but with the manufacturers, wholesalers and jobbers.

One druggist admitted that analysis showed no aspirin in any of 500 tablets.

C. W. Knapp Funeral to Be Held Monday

By the Associated Press.

St. Louis, Jan. 7.—The funeral of Charles W. Knapp, treasurer of the New York Times, member of the board of directors of the Associated Press and under two weeks ago president and publisher of the St. Louis Republic, who died at his desk in New York yesterday afternoon, will be held here probably Monday afternoon. This was announced today by David R. Francis, former governor of Missouri, who will have charge of the funeral arrangements.

The body of Mr. Knapp is due to arrive in St. Louis at 6 o'clock Sunday evening. It will be accompanied by Mrs. Knapp's widow, his daughter, Mrs. G. M. Moore, of St. Louis, Mrs. Middle Stone, general manager of the Associated Press, and Louis Wiley of the New York Times.

Mrs. J. M. Dorrance of Houston, Tex., sister of Mr. Knapp, will come to St. Louis to attend the funeral.

Most Men in Navy American Citizens

By the Associated Press.

Washington, Jan. 7.—Nearly 95 per cent of the enlisted men in the navy are citizens of the United States, and the rest are from the most part the Philippines or from the countries of other insular possessions.

A letter from Rear Admiral Victor Blue, chief of the bureau of Navigation, announcing this fact, was read today in the senate by request of Senator Tillman, who has forwarded the admiral's statement to the committee on naval affairs, in which he has received an inquiry as to the nationality of the landing of troops in the Dardanelles.

In connection with the submarine activity in the Mediterranean sea, an Athena dispatch notes that alarm is felt there owing to the fact that none of the nine ships laden with grain purchased in America either has arrived or been signaled.

The situation along other fronts is comparatively quiet.

The loss of a British submarine by a mishap of navigation off the Dutch coast makes a total of eleven British submarines lost since the beginning of the war. A majority of these, however, have been of the smaller types.

An echo of General Sir Ian Hamilton's remarks on the Dardanelles operations is found in a report published today that Gen. Sir Frederick Stopford, who was recalled on account of his conduct in the Suvla bay operations, has demanded an inquiry by the war office into the whole circumstances of the landing of troops in the Dardanelles.

No democrats joined in the argument, but they divided their applause between

Mr. Gardner and his critics.

"Who here?" asked Mr. Stafford as he took the floor. "In whose veins flows any Teutonic blood but that sympathizes with the fatherland?" But mere sympathy for the fatherland does not conflict with the loyalty to the state and to the German-Austrian-Hungary should attempt to do anything ac to invade our rights, I am sure those German-American who in times past have shown their loyalty would do so again."

"Not, however, as some of the noble volunteers from the effete New England in the Spanish-American war did."

They entered for little wars, that desirable little war against a little and crumbling country, when after they enlisted they had their mothers go and beg Governor Wolcott of Massachusetts not to send them to the front."

Mr. Longworth termed Mr. Gardner's address "reckless and impudent," and spoke of the "ridiculous" and "absurd

"and absolutely false" imputation."

"I regret that he made the speech, he said. "This is not the time to bring up questions that will fan the flame of hatred in this country."

UNITED STATES LEADS IN WORLD'S TRADE

SECRETARY REDFIELD WARNS READJUSTMENT WILL BE NECESSARY AFTER WAR.

By the Associated Press.

Washington, Jan. 7.—Secretary Redfield in a memorandum on business conditions transmitted to President Wilson today pictures the country as in the most prosperous state of its history. The warning is added though that war's inflation of commerce will last on until the war's end and that business forces will still prepare the United States for peace.

The slump that will follow the war abroad, the secretary's summary declares, must find Americans ready to take their share of the world's trade unhampered by provincial notions.

False values created by unusual conditions, he fears, may lull the United States into a fancied commercial security.

"It is not to be expected," the secretary says, "that our business readjustment will continue in its present form. No one dreams that we can now or in the future maintain an export movement of more than five billions actual value, or that we may safely expect an apparent net balance in our favor on merchandise transactions of three billions in any one year."

Spending Capital Now.

"It is alike impossible and undesirable that these things continue. It is impossible for no other reason than because the world has not the power to pay to any one nation such vast sums for any long period in addition to the waste of war. The nations are not spending their incomes in our markets but their capital and vast as it is, there are limits to which the consumption of the process is desirable for it would make the Middle among the nations and produce a moral overstrain that would be dangerous.

"We should be subjected through having such a giant's strength to the temptation to use it like a giant. Evil that excessive power brings to men would threaten us."

Opportunities for a normal prosperity after the war are outlined, the secretary pointing out that the United States has jumped to first place among the nations in international trade.

"Whether we shall remain the first, the memorandum continues, "depends upon the vision and energy of our bankers, manufacturers, merchants and farmers. We have for the first time in our history a sound system of finance. In this one respect our preparedness is complete. Our strength can be mobilized on demand to meet the needs of trade. Enterprise and investment may move with a certitude never known as regards our fiscal system. We hold the greatest gold reserve of history."

Prosperity General.

"Both financial power and effective means of using that power are in our possession. Together they may form a basis of commercial and financial opportunity."

Prosperity has grown general and no particular class is benefited at the expense of others in its present form. No one dreams that we can now or in the future maintain an export movement of more than five billions actual value, or that we may safely expect an apparent net balance in our favor on merchandise transactions of three billions in any one year."

"Students of the railway problem know that in the past hard days much needed work has been left undone and that vast expenditures are needed soon to keep our railways abreast of the national needs," the secretary writes.

"The earnings now exist for these improvements and the financial system is available and the fiscal power to carry them out."

"The economies forced upon railroads, industrial corporations and individuals in recent years are a potent factor in maintaining prosperity. Our business is being done more wastefully than heretofore. There are now tons of efficiency in factories, in office on the farm and in the work of the railway manager. We shall enter the revised world's arena better

Philadelphia, Jan. 7.—Edward Keller was today held by the coroner to await the action of the grand jury on the charge of murdering his former business associate, Daniel J. McNichol, whose body was discovered buried in a trunk in the cellar of an abandoned building formerly occupied by Keller. McNichol's death, according to the testimony of his former physician at the inquest today, was caused by a bullet fired into the back of his neck and which penetrated his brain.

McNichol disappeared on March 29, 1914, but the body was not discovered until December 15, 1915, when workmen excavating the cellar found the trunk and its contents.

Steamer Newton
Goes Through Canal

By the Associated Press.

Panama, Jan. 7.—The steamer Newton, the last vessel waiting for passage through the Panama canal, passed through the waterway today. The Newton drawing twenty-seven feet has the greatest draft of any vessel using the canal since it was closed last September.

Major General George W. Goethals, governor of the canal zone, said that while the Newton was permitted to pass through the canal it was not yet in condition for continuous traffic and that the waterway was not open.

He also said that it probably would remain closed for a considerable period and declined to make an estimate of the time required to reopen the Gallard cut that was closed by a landslide.

Knights Templar Elect and Install Officers for Year

Officers for the year were elected by Waco Commandery No. 10, Knights Templar, at a meeting last night. J. F. Brinkerhoff, past grand commander of the State Commandery of Texas, acted as installing officer.

Following are the officers elected and installed at the meeting last night: V. F. Coleman, eminent commander; E. E. Quinn, generalissimo; D. G. Carpenter, captain general; W. F. Quene, senior warden; D. F. Beaman, junior warden; M. F. Bell, treasurer; J. F. Brinkerhoff, recorder; J. B. Sawtell, prelate; G. J. Olson, standard bearer; N. P. Lowery, sword bearer; Ralph Blair, warden; Frank Holt, sentinel.

Mexican Puts Crimp in H. C. of L.
The "high cost of living" was partially solved for a short while yesterday afternoon by a Mexican who helped himself to some onions while at the track of a railroad while at that time belonged to the Rotan Grocery company. The onions had fallen from some supply cars. Patrolman Clay made the arrest—and the Mexican got supper anyway.

DANCING FROCK OF BLACK NET

Simplicity marks this charming frock for dancing and evening wear of black net and velvet bands. The skirt reaches just above the ankles, where it is edged with a strand of beads. Broad velvet bands are used effectively on the skirt and waist. The waist itself is extremely decollete. The hair is frizzled and raised high above the head like a Kaffir chief's head dress.

Another of the informal coming together for members of the Entre Nous club found Mrs. Otis De Hay hostess and Miss Sappington the only girls other than club members. Within the next few days, Mrs. Joseph Sappington will be special hostess to the club with additional guests and more elaborate detail.

MISS MARY MCGOWN
DIES IN ALABAMA

Following her call to Tuscaloosa, Ala., on account of the alarming condition of her sister, Mrs. J. P. Anderson, recent widow, the bedside of Miss Mary McGowen just three days before she passed away. Miss McGowen in former years visited this city, hence she is pleasantly recalled here. Mrs. Anderson will be at home within the next few days.

SOCIAL NEEDLECRAFT WITH MRS. C. H. TEAF

Out on Sanger avenue with special guests in the Mesdames Kime, Teaf, Wylie, Reynolds, Hall and Hay, Mrs. Teaf was hostess to the Social Needlecraft. It had been anticipated that an election of officers should be the business feature, but absence of so many members from sickness, deferred this. In the meantime, quite a pleasant hour was enjoyed with hostess, guests and club members.

MRS. INMAN ROBERTS
ENTERTAINS THE ALPHAS

For the first time after holiday adjournment the members of the Alphas came together. Mrs. Inman Roberts, assisted by her mother, was the hostess. Guests within the club were the Myrtle Dillard, with the Mesdames T. W. Nethery, R. B. Bonner, J. C. Roberts. The music of the afternoon was given by Miss Dillard. Mrs. S. J. T. Smith will entertain next Thursday.

J. J. HUTCHISON HOST AT BIRTHDAY DINNER

In returning home on Thursday evening, it was the genuine, yet glad, surprise to J. J. Hutchison to find his home full of guests. It was birthday greeting and it was most surprise to find that the good wife had ready a birthday dinner. Jollity reigned. The guests were, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Crawford, W. H. Hoffmann, H. O. Bishop, Miss Patty Cassedy and Albert Steele.

PLEASURE AND PROFIT LEADS IN PHILANTHROPY

No sooner said than done. It was scarce to wait through the Morning News of Friday that several of the social clubs were committed to a charity department, than the Pleasure and Profit responded to a call for equipment to the Traveler's aid work. The City Federation of Missionary societies finds that emergency supplies are needed. Steps had been taken to collect these, and it now goes to the Pleasure and Profit to be the first to donate.

MRS. J. J. LANDRUM MEETS FEDERATION COMMITTEES

Mrs. J. J. Landrum is now ready to give special attention to rural clubs within McLennan county. Following this, Mrs. E. M. Doan as president of the City Federation, is calling members of her committees on home economics, library extension and rural life, to confer with Mrs. Landrum this morning. The meeting will be at the Hotel Riggs as announced in the calendar. All women interested in this work are cordially invited.

MARY WEST CHAPTER TO HAVE SPECIAL PROGRAM

In annual observance of the birthday of Robert E. Lee, the Mary West chapter, through the chapter historian, Mrs. J. W. Downs, is arranging special program for January 19. This will include the Veterans, Daughters and any personally interested in the beloved general or the cause for which he fought. The session will be with Mrs. Artemas Roberts, Colcord avenue, but the details of program will come nearer the day of celebration.

MISS MILDRED LASTINGER FOR MISS NAIDA BARNES

Within her home for a few days, Miss Mildred Lastinger is entertaining Miss Naida Barnes from Mart. In special pleasure for Thursday afternoon, Miss Lastinger entertained a company of girl friends with game and table social pleasure around the punch table. Those who were invited for this agreeable hour with Miss Lastinger and her honoree are the Misses Nannie Claire Habert, Dorothy Lane, Wilma Shaffer, Charlene Turner, Mildred Habert, Lucia Goch, Lucile Lewis, Emily Montgomery, Ben Evelyn McElroy, Margaret Sleper, Louise Irwin, Frances Hays and Clara Parsons.

Society Notes

Mr. and Mrs. John Hamilton are due within the next few days from South Bend, Ind. They will be guests of their sister, Mrs. Marie Holway, on Washington street.

After an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Gilbert Hay, in Raleigh, N. C., Mrs. John Marshall of Washington street is now due at home.

On Friday Mr. and Mrs. James Bodie took apartment with Mrs. Robert Nichols, Terrace Row.

Mrs. Walter King of Speight street, who went down to Seguin for the holidays, remains until early spring.

Mrs. G. H. Pape, who has been with her mother, Mrs. Richard Jurney for the early season, is now in Dallas. She is due here for another few days and then goes to reopen her apartment in Dallas.

The visit here of Nat Hardy from New York City is reminder of the many years of pleasant sojourn of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Hardy in this city. Young Mr. Hardy is visiting boyhood friends at present guest of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Prude, out on West Columbia.

We must all begin to read what the press has on the Nation's Bank. Week Waco will do her part in this observance and will do an intelligent job.

Miss Roberta Wright, Mrs. James Wright and Mrs. J. R. Walker are the committee of club women to arrange for this observance, which comes with early March.

The Morning News dislikes to decline items of woman's news. But the rule is invariable; these must be furnished promptly else they will not be accepted. Each day must be a fresh, full chronicle of the day previous and no later.

On Tuesday Miss Anne Risher goes to San Antonio where she will be guest of Miss Clara May Brooks for the leap year ball and other gayety.

Just a little while and we will be reckoning the calendar for the date upon which Ash Wednesday falls. This means the beginning of the Lenten season.

Mr. William Mistrot of Highland is in Waco for an indefinite sojourn owing to the illness of her father, the beloved Mr. Cox.

Since the Airedale is coming into popularity among Waco dog lovers, it is an interesting note to hear that this breed is being trained for police service, since the policeman say "They are almost human in their presence of mind."

The Waco library is right in line with world movement for good literature with the youth. Pick up any book advertisement these days and you will be impressed with the vast amount of attention to the children. All the imaginative stories from all lands are being revived as fairy tale, myth and folk lore, the idea being to stimulate the child's imagination without vitiating it. The story hour at the library and the guidance of the librarian as to what the children shall take home to read, is a wonderful force in culture of heart and mind for the Waco children.

You hear anything of interest from former Wacoites, let the Morning News hear of it. This thought is suggested from the many pleasant reminiscences caused from the coming of holiday greeting from the four corners of the globe to this city.

It is all right for the men who promote jewelry made in the far away countries to have fashion writers tell us how refining it is to have jewels to match each gown. Pray, who is to supply the ducats for the purchase of all these stones? The average woman feels very proud in her possession of a diamond ring or two and a necklace of pearls.

What is the matter with Cupid? Not a suspicion of a wedding is discussed now in Waco society. The situation matrimonial is without precedent.

With all this fuss and furor with the debutantes, the girls of two seasons are in the desperation of giving an Old Maids leap year ball; so they say.

Again we suggest that in case of funeral services in the home, our choirs adopt the custom, and it is a sweet memory of other places. There is no moment more poignant in grief than that which sees the casket and the beloved form leave the home forever.

To have the choir sing something soothing is great relief. We have wondered why the custom has not come into Waco as it has elsewhere long ago.

We noticed the other day that the Normal school in Milwaukee is giving a course in "Kindness." This is in Following her call to Tuscaloosa, Ala., on account of the alarming condition of her sister, Mrs. J. P. Anderson reached the bedside of Miss Mary McGowen just three days before she passed away. Miss McGowen in former years visited this city, hence she is pleasantly recalled here. Mrs. Anderson will be at home within the next few days.

SOCIAL NEEDLECAFT WITH MRS. C. H. TEAF

Out on Sanger avenue with special guests in the Mesdames Kline, Teaf, Wylie, Reynolds, Hall and Hay, Mrs. Teaf was hostess to the Society. The craft had been anticipated that an election of officers should be the business feature, but because of so many members from sickness, deferred this. In the meantime, quite a pleasant hour was enjoyed with hostess, guests and club members.

MRS. INMAN ROBERTS ENTERTAINS THE ALPHAS

For the first time after holiday adjournment the members of the Alphas came together. Mrs. Inman Roberts, assisted by her mother, was the hostess. Guests within the club were Mrs. Myrtle Dillard, with the Mesdames T. W. Nethery, R. B. Henderson, J. C. Roberts. The music of the afternoon was given by Miss Dillard. Mrs. S. J. T. Smith will entertain next Thursday.

J. J. HUTCHISON HOST AT BIRTHDAY DINNER

In returning home on Thursday evening, it was the genuine, yet the glad surprise to J. J. Hutchison to find his home full of guests. It was birthday greeting, and it was most surprise to find that the good wife had ready a birthday dinner. Jollity reigned. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Crawford, W. H. Hoffmann, H. O. Bishop, Miss Patty Cassedy and Albert Steele.

MEXICAN PUTS CRIMP IN H. C. OF L.

The "high cost of living" was partially solved for a short while yesterday afternoon by a Mexican who helped himself to some onions along the track of a railroad which at that time belonged to the Rotan Grocery company. The onions had fallen from some supply cars. Patrolman Clay made the arrest—and the Mexican got supper anyway.

MARY WEST CHAPTER TO HAVE SPECIAL PROGRAM

In annual observance of the birthday of Robert E. Lee, the Mary West chapter, through the chapter historian, Mrs. J. W. Downs, is arranging a program for January 19. This will include the Veterans' Daughters and any personally interested in the beloved general or the cause for which he fought. The session will be with Mrs. Artemas Roberts, Colcord avenue, but the details of program will come nearer the day of celebration.

MISS MILDRED LASTINGER FOR MISS NAIDA BARNES

Within her home for a few days, Miss Mildred Lastinger is entertaining Miss Naida Barnes from Mart. In special pleasure for Thursday afternoon, Miss Lastinger entertained a company of girl friends with game and other social pleasure around the punch table. Those who were invited for this agreeable hour with Miss Lastinger and her honoree are the Misses Nellie Claire Haberl, Dorothy Lake, Wilma Shaffer, Charlotte Turner, Mildred Haberl, Lucile Gooch, Lucile Lewis, Emily Monroe, Ben Evelyn McKittrick, Margaret Sleeper, Louise Irwin, Frances Hays and Clara Parsons.

MRS. W. W. WOODSON HOSTESS TO HER BOARD

In preliminary for the regular bi-monthly session of the City Federation of Missionary Societies, Mrs. W. W. Woodson called her executive board for a morning session. Business transacted morning lengthened into afternoon, for Mrs. Woodson had in waiting an elaborate buffet luncheon. In this Mrs. Bolivar Nettles was assistant hostess. The table was the last of the rich Christmas flower groups. Around this the buffet service passed. In the meantime, realizing that this was the last coming together of this board which had found so much of pleasure by way of work in a good Notice to Subscribers.

Delivery routes in the City of Waco are in the hands of independent carriers, who buy directly from the wholesale prices. Subscription accounts are due them, not the Waco Morning News. They are under heavy bond, not only to give the best delivery service, but to pay their papers every month. Their remuneration is the difference between the wholesale price and the retail price which they receive from subscribers. This margin of profit is such that they cannot afford to extend credit except month by month. They are not reward, and they are advised against, delivering the paper to anyone who does not pay in accordance with the above subscription terms. The carriers are all earnest, hard working men, and they will appreciate any courtesy shown them.

BUMS, BEDS AND BUCKSAWS.

Every normal man has more or less of sympathy with his fellow who is "down and out," but for that type of fellow who is down but refuses to put one leg before the other one in order to get up, sympathy and assistance are largely wasted.

Reports from Chicago are to the effect that there has been a marked falling-off in the number of men given beds at the municipal lodging house as a result of the establishment of the rule, "If you sleep here you saw wood." In December, 1914, before the rule was invoked, the number of men housed during the month was 103,441, while in December, 1915, when the rule applied, beds were demanded by only 8,719.

It must be borne in mind, of course, that non-employment existed on a larger scale in 1914 than during the last year, but the proportion of non-employment for the two years showed nothing like the variance that the number of applicants for beds exhibited. The truth of the matter is, there are numbers of men in the world—and not all of them inhabit Chicago—who are too lazy and indifferent to put their shoulders to the wheel, even if their comfort does depend upon it. Some of them had rather let their wives and children suffer than to exert themselves to any extent. The superintendent of the Chicago lodging house did the wise thing in providing that all applicants for beds should saw enough wood to pay for the privilege of sleeping there. A man who is too lazy to saw a little wood for a bed is too mean to enjoy the privileges of a decent bed. The proper bed for him is one of cacti or prickly pears.

That's a nice kettle of fish which Representative George F. Burgess of the Ninth Texas district has set before himself. When he announced his intention to make the race for the senate and declared he would not offer for congress again, five prominent citizens of the district announced they would make the race for his seat in the lower house. Now that he has backed out of the senatorial race and will try and succeed himself in the house, two of the candidates for his place, C. S. E. Holland of Victoria and W. S. Holman of Bay City, have withdrawn from the race, but ex-Lieutenant Governor A. B. Davidson of Cuero, J. T. Mansfield of Columbus and George J. Schleicher of Cuero announce they will continue their race, regardless of Mr. Burgess' course, and we rather admire their pluck.

The Rotary club is to have a program soon in which several members of the club will be asked to tell what they would do if they were czar of Waco. We know several Rotarians whom we believe capable of bringing about an improvement in things as we find them now, but in order that we may not embarrass the program committee we shall not call any names at present.

George Balley of the Houston Post offers a frying pan as a wedding present to the first girl who exercises her leap year prerogative and gets away with the man. Why not a Waco girl take him up on this proposition? In such an event the Morning News will add a dinner pot and a tea kettle to the list of presents.

Will the administration seek to release Majority Leader Kitchin in the kitchen in this session of congress and reserve the seats in the parlor for the more faithful ones?

Money never makes a fool of a man, but it sometimes shows who was already a fool, observes the Florida Times-Union.

A DIFFERENT KIND OF STORY.

We have often heard the remark that all news is bad news.

By this it was meant that the newspapers are filled with accounts of fires, accidents, misfortunes of various kinds, domestic infelicities, business failures, thefts, burglaries, defalcations, immorality, divorces, murder and war.

But the allegation is untrue. Of course, the newspapers do carry the items of unpleasant news as they occur because they are news and the people who support the papers want to know what their neighbors are doing and what the world in general is engaged in. Critics of the newspapers overlook the fact, however, that the papers are just as ready to give good news in which the public is interested as they are to give the bad news.

The country was shocked when a few days before Christmas the doors of a savings bank in Pittsburgh were closed and 141,000 children of that city were threatened with the loss of their $267,000 in deposits they had placed in the bank. The papers gave some display to that item, as a matter of course, but when a few days later H. C. Frick, the coal magnate, came along and made good the deposit of every child, still larger display was given to this fact. The papers have played up the work of relief in Belgium, Poland and other stricken sections of the war zone along with the pictures of the conditions of distress which prevail there, and while there are some papers which take particular pride in catering to the morbid senses of people in the character of news stories which they use, the majority of the papers of this country have a constructive sense of news and strive to give a true reflection of the world's happenings, the good as well as the bad.

The mistake of this well-intended man was due to what is now seen to be his lamentable ignorance. Before he said Mr. Ford was reported to have said that he never read history, since history belonged to the past. That was a most illuminating confession. It explains many things. If he had known anything of history he would know that when whole nations go to war it is almost always because they are influenced by some idea. Rascally politicians and crooked diplomats often, it is true, betray peoples into war. But even under these conditions patriotism—of which Mr. Ford seems to take little account—plays a large part. It is so in this war. Possibly if the peacemakers had given some little attention to history he would not have had to go to Europe to learn the truth about the war.

In his statement, Mr. Ford says:

"The movement is now organized and under way. People are talking about it, and, while some criticize, when people talk they think, and when they think, they think right."

"When people talk they think?"—precisely the contrary is true. Thus there seems to be need of further education. The talkers, as a general thing, are not thinkers. It is to men of this class that Mr. Ford has been listening, and the result is that he was misled. Nor is it by any means always true that when people "think they think right."

The more some people think the further astray do they go. The world is full of wrong thinking. Whether this fact can be brought home to the consciousness of the distinguished Detroit is doubtful. He has yet much to learn. Here again a study of history might help him, since that is very largely a record of human fallacies and errors, due to the influence of men who did a lot of thinking, but who thought wrong.

Sherman, Jan. 7.—B. R. Wise, who last night pleaded guilty to shooting his wife, Mrs. Grace Wise, here on December 7, today was given a four-year penitentiary sentence, following an all-night trial by the jury. Wise first pleaded not guilty, but this was withdrawn after the jury was selected at yesterday's session of the trial. Mrs. Wise was able to be in the court room, but is blind as a result of one of the two shots.

Mandates in Death Penalty Cases.

By the Associated Press.

Austin, Jan. 7.—Two mandates were issued in the court of criminal appeals today for death penalty cases from Harris county. One of these affirms the penalty assessed against Henry Tennen, a negro, for rape on a girl under 15 years of age, alleged to have been committed on September 2, 1915. The other overrules a motion for re-hearing in the case of Henry Sampson, given death for murder of Charles Bourgeois on May 5, 1915.

Well Known Colonizer Dead.

By the Associated Press.

Houston, Jan. 7.—John P. Street of San Antonio, well known land owner and colonizer in the Brownsville country, died unexpectedly on a special homeseekers' train near Sealy yesterday, en route to Houston and San Benito. The body was taken off here and shipped to San Antonio. Other landed men and colonizers, including John J. Conway of Mission and John H. Shary of Omaha, were aboard. Mrs. Street was accompanying her husband.

Lived 160 Hours After Bad Fall.

By the Associated Press.

Houston, Jan. 7.—After lying unconscious for 160 hours as a result of a fall from the third floor fire escape of a building here, Vernon Williford, 22 years old, son of a prominent family, is dead. The youth was attending a dance and stepped out on the fire escape with his dancing partner. Doctors were puzzled over his remarkable vitality.

Ouster Case in Progress.

By the Associated Press.

Austin, Jan. 7.—The ouster suit to remove from office the county judge and four county commissioners was resumed today in district court and argument was in progress late today. A decision is expected tomorrow. The defendants are County Judge Givens, A. Parr and Commissioners Carillo, Hinojosa Garcia and Allen.

Teacher's Father Dies in Waco.

By the Associated Press.

Waco, Jan. 7.—Miss Carrie Compton, a teacher at McGregor, was called home Thursday night on account of the death of her father, J. H. Compton, which occurred at 7:15 p. m. Thursday.

AS WE GROW OLDER

our minds are quite as active as in former years but our strength does not respond when we need it most; perhaps the kidneys are weak, the liver torpid, rheumatic pains or stiffened joints beset us, and we cannot easily throw off the colds that winter brings.

What we need is the rich cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion to renew the blood and carry strength to every organ of the body, while its glycerine soothes the respiratory tract, and its hypophosphites strengthen the excitatory nerves.

Scott's Emulsion is a scientific oil-food, of unusual benefit to those past fifty years—particularly during the colder seasons, it imparts warmth and creates strength. One bottle will prove its worth. No alcohol or harmful drugs.

MR. FORD'S REVISED VIEWS.

Henry Ford has at least learned a few things as a result of his recent trip to Europe, observes the Indianapolis News. But it is doubtful whether he has learned anything that he ought not to have known before he started on his expedition. In some mysterious way he had made up his mind that bankers and manufacturers of armament and munitions were solely responsible for the war. Mr. Ford had no doubt heard much of this sort of talk from demagogues masquerading as pacifists, and he accepted it as gospel truth. It was perfectly clear that the bankers did not want the war, and as for the munition makers, they would have been powerless to start such a conflagration. Even their interests, viewed broadly, were on the side of armed peace. They were selling all they could make, while they may well suspect that one of the consequences of this war will be the reduction of armaments. All this was clear—but not to Mr. Ford. He was convinced that the various armies would be glad to fight, and that they would, thanks to his efforts, be out of the trenches by February 1. All tenants have been advised to vacate by this date.

The Seider hotel, a large frame, is the property to be removed. It is written in the history of Cuero and Southwest Texas, but has been used for commercial purposes for a number of years. The upper story has not been used for a longer period. This will make a pleasing change along the main street, and the tenants new business stores, modernly equipped.

The Seider building is fast assuming its proper proportions. Stone and steel are being placed and within twelve months it is thought Cuero will be ready to move into the new building. Eighteen months are allowed the contractors, but with no undue delays in material and bad weather it is thought the work will consume but twelve months.

A business block is expected opposite the building in due time. Quite a number of repair and remodeling jobs are under way over town and local mechanics have begun the new year with a nice lot of work ahead of them. Cuero has been fortunate enough to be able to keep a majority of her laborers at home for more than a year and expects, with work planned to follow this year, to retain those who have remained at the old stand and accepted conditions.

The Graves block will be erected entirely by the end of January. Mr. Graves will look after the work with day labor and only such mechanics as are given special pieces of work that cannot be found here will be imported.

To Continue Galveston Quarantine.

By the Associated Press.

Austin, Jan. 7.—According to Dr. Collins, state health officer, the state's bill of health will continue in force at the port of Galveston. This statement is based on an opinion rendered by the attorney general. This opinion upholds the state's action in all things to safeguard the public health, "provided it does not violate or interfere with federal laws and regulations." Dr. Collins states that the government will continue to inspect and disinfect vessels entering Galveston.

BUMS, BEDS AND BUCKSAWS.

Every normal man has more or less of sympathy with his fellow who is "down and out," but for that type of fellow who is down but refuses to put one leg before the other one in order to get up, sympathy and assistance are largely wasted.

Reports from Chicago are to the effect that there has been a marked falling-off in the number of men given beds at the municipal lodging house as a result of the establishment of the rule, "If you sleep here you saw wood." In December, 1914, before the rule was invoked, the number of men housed during the month was 103,441, while in December, 1915, when the rule applied, beds were demanded by only 8,719.

It must be borne in mind, of course, that non-employment existed on a larger scale in 1914 than during the last year, but the proportion of non-employment for the two years showed nothing like the variance that the number of applicants for beds exhibited. The truth of the matter is, there are numbers of men in the world—and not all of them inhabit Chicago—who are too lazy and indifferent to put their shoulders to the wheel, even if their comfort does depend upon it. Some of them had rather let their wives and children suffer than to exert themselves to any extent. The superintendent of the Chicago lodging house did the wise thing in providing that all applicants for beds should saw enough wood to pay for the privilege of sleeping there. A man who is too lazy to saw a little wood for a bed is too mean to enjoy the privileges of a decent bed. The proper bed for him is one of cacti or prickly pears.

That's nice kettle of fish which Representative George F. Burgess of the Ninth Texas district has set before himself. When he announced his intention to make the race for the senate and declared he would not offer for congress again, five prominent citizens of the district announced they would make the race for his seat in the lower house. Now that he has backed out of the senatorial race and will try and succeed himself in the house, two of the candidates for his place, C. S. E. Holland of Victoria and W. S. Holman of Bay City, have withdrawn from the race, but ex-Lieutenant Governor A. B. Davidson of Cuero, J. J. Mansfield of Columbus and George J. Schleicher of Cuero announce they will continue their race, regardless of Mr. Burgess' course, and we rather admire their pluck.

The Rotary club is to have a program soon in which several members of the club will be asked to tell what they would do if they were czar of Waco. We know several Rotarians whom we believe capable of bringing about an improvement in things as we find them now, but in order that we may not embarrass the program committee we shall not call any names at present.

George Bailey of the Houston Post offers a frying pan as a wedding present to the first girl who exercises her leap year prerogative and gets away with the man. Why not a Waco girl take him up on this proposition? In such an event the Morning News will add a dinner pot and a tea kettle to the list of presents.

Will the administration seek to relegate Majority Leader Kitchin to the kitchen in this session of congress and reserve the seats in the parlor for the more faithful ones?

Money never makes a fool of a man, but it sometimes shows who was already a fool, observes the Florida Times-Union.

A DIFFERENT KIND OF STORY.

MR. FORD'S REVISED VIEWS.

We have often heard the remark that all news is bad news. By this it was meant that the newspapers are filled with accounts of fires, accidents, misfortunes of various kinds, domestic infelicities, business failures, thefts, burglaries, defalcations, immorality, divorces, murder and war.

But the allegation is untrue. Of course, the newspapers do carry the items of unpleasant news as they occur because they are news and the people who support the papers want to know what their neighbors are doing and what the world in general is engaged in. Critics of the newspapers overlook the fact, however, that the papers are just as ready to give good news as the public is interested as they are to give the bad news.

The country was shocked when a few days before Christmas the doors of a savings bank in Pittsburg were closed and 141,000 children of that city were threatened with the loss of their $267,000 in deposits they had placed in the bank. The papers gave some display to that item, as a matter of course, but when a few days later H. C. Frick, the coal magnate, came along and made good the deposit of every child, still larger display was given to this fact. The papers have played up the work of relief in Belgium, Poland and other stricken sections of the war zone along with the pictures of the conditions of distress which prevail there, and while there are some papers which take a particular pride in catering to the morbid senses of people in the character of news stories which they use, the majority of the papers of this country have a constructive sense of news and strive to give a true reflection of the world's happenings, the good as well as the bad.

One of the most beautiful stories the papers have carried in a long time was that which came out of New Douglas, Ill., the other day to the effect that when Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hoyer, aged 84 and 79 years, respectively, died from the same cause and almost at the same hour the other day, just as the old year was about to pass out and give way to the new, the entire town turned out to the funeral.

The couple had been married fifty-seven years. The two became ill at the same time on Christmas day, both suffering from congestion of the lungs. And throughout their illness each inquired diligently as to the condition of the other. But they had already lived their three-score years and ten, and more, and their constitutions failed to rally from the attack. The husband passed over the river first, probably, as one with a keen imagination might suggest, to see that the way was clear for his companion, and as he embarked he uttered a tender farewell message for the wife. A few minutes after she had heard of his death she passed on, too, and there was no period of loneliness and desolation that comes to one robbed of a life companion.

No, not all news is bad news, and not all newspapers cater to the sordid and baser elements of men's natures.

While there may have been those in Texas who looked for the appointment of Judge William F. Ramsey as the reserve agent of the federal reserve bank at Dallas at a salary of $10,000, ex-Governor Colquitt and others who used to dub the gentleman "William-Fix-em" were not among the number. But from the quietness with which the appointment was made it appears that Judge Ramsey may have had things "fixed" in advance.

"Cyclone" Davis has broken into the Associated Press dispatches within less than a month of service in congress, which is better than the average new congressman does, so we presume he is employing his cyclonic proclivities at the capitol. But the crowd left the house when he began to read one of his last-year campaign speeches and Cyclone probably learned a lesson as well as gave one.

Those New Haven directors, on trial for violation of the criminal clause of the Sherman anti-trust laws, have a very poor defense if we are to judge it by the tactics of their chief counsel, Delancey Nicoll, in his ridicule of R. L. Batts, chief prosecutor for the department of justice, and the fact that Batts hails from Texas.

The Bell county grand jury believes in enforcing the law. Five indictments have been returned already for violation of the local option laws in that county and it went dry only on Christmas night. There is no excuse for the bootlegger in Bell county or anywhere else.

Fort Worth showed over 1,200 deaths during the last year and only about 1,000 births. We are not advised whether the stork fell down on his deliveries in that city or the doctors fell down in their reports on his visits.

We never took the pains to inquire who is the author of that well-known song, "I Did Not Raise My Boy to Be a Soldier," but it appears that the song may have been inspired by the mothers of about 2,000,000 of England's laboring men.

Texas is shipping fresh strawberries, but we have not heard of any Texans who are able to eat them at this season.

BUILDING TRADES ARE BUSY AT CUERO

HISTORIC SEIDER HOTEL TO BE REPLACED BY A MODERN BUSINESS BLOCK.

Federal Building Nearing Completion. Home Labor to Be Given Preference.

Special to the Morning News.

Cuero, Jan. 7.—The hammer and saw at Cuero are heard on all sides since the resumption of business in all lines following the holiday week. The largest piece of building and improvements is the one-story, high-fronted modern business house to be erected by J. A. and T. A. Graves on Main street, between Gonzales and Esplanade. An old landmark will be razed and work is scheduled to begin February 1. All tenants have been advised to vacate by this date.

The Seider hotel, a large frame, is the property to be removed. It is written in the history of Cuero and Southwest Texas, but has been used for commercial purposes for a number of years. The upper story has not been used for a longer period. This will make a pleasing change along the main street and six tenants new business stores, modernly equipped.

The federal building is fast assuming its proper proportions. Stone and steel are being placed and within twelve months it is thought Cuero will be ready to move into the new building. Eighteen months are allowed the contractors, but with no undue delays in material and bad weather it is thought the work will consume but twelve months.

A business block is expected opposite this building in due time. Quite a number of new houses and remodeling jobs are under way on town and local streets. Work has begun the new year with a nice lot of work ahead of them. Cuero has been fortunate enough to be able to keep a majority of her laborers at home for more than a year and expects, with work planned to follow this year, to retain those who have remained at the old stand and accepted conditions.

The Graves block will be erected entirely by home labor. Mr. Graves will look after the work with day labor and see that Cuero mechanics are given employment above others and only such mechanics as are needed for special pieces of work that cannot be found here will be imported.

To Continue Galveston Quarantine.

Austin, Jan. 7.—According to Dr. Collins, state health officer, the state's bill of health will continue in force at the port of Galveston. This statement is based on an opinion rendered the health department by the attorney general. This opinion upholds the state's power in all things to safeguard the public health, "provided it does not violate or interfere with federal laws and regulations." Dr. Collins states that the government will continue to inspect and disinfect vessels entering Galveston.

Shot Wife; Gets Four Years.

By the Associated Press.

Sherman, Jan. 7.—E. B. Wise, who last night pleaded guilty to shooting his wife, Mrs. Grace Wise, here early December 7, today was given a four-year penitentiary sentence, following an all-night session by the jury. Wise first pleaded not guilty, but this was withdrawn after the jury was selected at yesterday's session of the trial. Mrs. Wise was able to be in the court room, but is blind as a result of one of the two shots.

Mandates in Death Penalty Cases.

Austin, Jan. 7.—Two mandates were issued in the court of criminal appeals today for death penalty cases from Harris county. One of these affirms the penalty assessed against Henry Tennell, a negro, for rape on a girl under 15 years of age, alleged to have been committed on September 2, 1915. The other overrules a motion for re-hearing in the case of Henry Sampson, given death for murder of Charles Georgeous on May 5, 1915.

Well Known Colonizer Dead.

By the Associated Press.

Houston, Jan. 7.—John P. Street of San Antonio, well known land owner and colonizer in the Brownsville country, died unexpectedly on a special homesickness train near Sealy yesterday, en route to Houston and San Benito. The body was taken of her and shipped to San Antonio. Other landed men and colonizers, including John J. Conway of Mission and John H. Shary of Omaha, were aboard. Mrs. Street was accompanying her husband.

Teacher's Father Dies in Waco.

McGregor, Jan. 7.—Miss Carrie Compton, a teacher at McGregor, was called home Thursday night on account of the death of her father, J. H. Compton, which occurred at 7:15 p. m. Thursday.

AS WE GROW OLDER

our minds are quite as active as in former years but our strength does not respond when we need it most; perhaps the kidneys are weak, the liver torpid, rheumatic pains or stiffened joints beset us, and we cannot easily throw off the colds that winter brings.

What we need is the rich cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion to renew the blood and carry strength to every organ of the body, while its glycerine soothes the respiratory tract, and its hypophosphites strengthen the excitable nerves.

Scott's Emulsion is a scientific oil-food, of unusual benefit to those past fifty years—particularly during the colder seasons, it imparts warmth and creates strength. One bottle will prove its worth. No alcohol or harmful drugs.

Commission to Grant Hearing on Rates to Cameron & Co.

Special to the Morning News.

Austin, Texas, Jan. 7.—The commission has indicated its willingness to grant a hearing in the application of William Cameron & Co., lumbermen, to consider the rates on sash, doors and blinds. An order suspending the new rates will shortly be issued, it is understood, and notice of hearing to be held at the regular February term.

Stenographer Takes Poison.

Dallas, Jan. 7.—Miss Carrie Covington, 18, was found in a dying condition at 10:15 a. m. on Gano street Thursday evening. A bottle which had contained bichloride of mercury tablets and some sediment in a tumbler which was nearby, indicated that she had taken poison.

New Hope Man Killed in Accident.

Dallas, Jan. 7.—Harvey Anderson, a merchant of New Hope, Dallas county, was killed and his brother, Arthur Anderson, probably fatally injured when an automobile in which they were riding turned over in a ditch near Dallas tonight. The driver of the car was seriously hurt, while another occupant escaped uninjured.

Ross Farmer Dies.

The death of Silas E. Earl occurred yesterday morning in the family residence near Ross. Mr. Earl was a farmer living on route 3 and was 53 years of age. Decedent is survived by his widow, five sons, Tom, Jim, Carter, Orville and Jesse, and two daughters, Miss Georgia and Mrs. Frank Lucas. These all live on route 3 with the exception of Mrs. Lucas, who lives in Ross. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock, interment to be made in the Ross cemetery. Mr. Earl had been ill for some time. Funeral arrangements will be in charge of the Puckett Undertaking establishment of this city.

Jim Wells Pro Election Upheld.

By the Associated Press.

Dallas, Jan. 7.—The Jim Wells county election which was won by the pro-Nelsonites, was upheld in district court here. The anti forces contended that the petition to call the election did not contain the names of 250 voters as is required by law. The case has been appealed.

Fifty Rioters Arrested.

Fifty rioters were arrested by the police and placed in the East Youngstown Stockade. When the police were compelled to leave the jail in order to patrol the fire zone, about 100 rioters congregated about the place and threatened to forcibly release the men. Mayor W. H. Cunningham at once swore in fifty deputies and ordered them to remain on duty at the jail throughout the night.

All available guards were employed by the Iron and Tube plants to protect their plants.

"The plants will remain closed until such time as the proper authorities see fit to provide protection to those employees who are willing and anxious to work but are prevented from going to their work by mobs formed from the ranks of those who have quit the employ of the company," said President James A. Campbell of the Youngstown Steel and Tube company in a statement tonight.

The outbreak tonight did not come as a surprise to the residents of East Youngstown. All day the entrances to the steel mills were watched by crowds of men armed with heavy clubs, knives and revolvers, and men who attempted to enter the plants were driven away by threats of violence. As the day advanced the crowd began hurling stones and clubs at workmen. Lunch tickets were taken and destroyed. Street cars were stopped and workmen forcibly removed. Cars were bombarded with stones and windows broken when motormen failed to stop at the command of the mob leaders.

Citizens Take a Hand.

With the rioting at its height, Oscar Diser, city solicitor of East Youngstown, organized a body of citizens and armed with revolvers marched to the point where the rioters had just looted the building. The citizens, with volley over heads of the rioters, who returned the fire, Diser ordered his men to fire again, this time pointing their weapons point-blank at the mob. About half a dozen were hit. Armed with night sticks, the solicitor and his men waded into the rioters using their clubs freely and scattering them into groups. These were finally rounded up and loaded into various kinds of vehicles and taken to the county jail. The streets were in this way partially cleared so that the Youngstown fire department could be brought in to fight the flames.

Nearly half a hundred men were arrested and half a dozen taken to jail, while others were loaded into wagons and taken to their homes. Many of the men suffered from cuts and other wounds, the result, according to the authorities, of fighting with the rioters.

One of the buildings attacked by the mob was that in which the postoffice was located. According to reports, rioters forced their way into the building and plucked a mail bag which was on hand at the time to open the safe and then looted the place. The building was later burned.

Soldiers Begin to Arrive.

Col. Charles C. Weyrecht of Alliance, Ohio, commander of the Eighth regiment, Ohio National Guard, conferred early today with Sheriff Umstead regarding the disposition of troops which are expected to arrive here later in the morning.

Company K of the Eighth regiment, Ohio National Guard, arrived here early today and marched at once to East Youngstown. The report that troops already had been sent to aid in quelling the rioting was denied by the police.

Four additional injured were reported to the authorities. Robert Davis, employed by railroad, was slightly wounded while at work late last night. His condition is critical. An unidentified foreigner was also shot and suffered internal injuries. His recovery is in doubt. The others were not seriously hurt.

The saloons not in Youngstown but in Mahoning and Trumbull counties will be closed as a result of the rioting. An order closing the saloons in the two counties was issued tonight by the state license commission.

Would Keep Sugar Off Free List.

By the Associated Press.

Washington, Jan. 7.—Senator Broussard of Louisiana today introduced a resolution which would suspend the provision of the tariff law relating sugar on the sugar bill.

The resolution was referred to the Senate finance committee, which later is expected to recommend its adoption.

Another resolution by Senator Broussard would grant consent of the United States to the state of Louisiana to institute in the supreme court a suit to determine whether the tariff law is being properly construed with respect to the sugar duties.

To Investigate Railroad Laws.

By the Associated Press.

Washington, Jan. 7.—President Wilson's suggestion to Congress that a commission be formed to inquire into legislation affecting railroads was reflected today in the adoption by the senate interstate commerce committee of Senator Newlands' resolution to create a joint commission to investigate the adequacy of railway legislation and the interstate commerce commission with a view to making recommendations to congress next December.

Deferred Traffic Suspended.

Special to the Morning News.

New York, Jan. 7.—The Commercial Cable company announces that owing to the interruption of other companies' cable facilities and the suspension by them of their cheaper forms of service at the end of December, an extraordinary volume of deferred traffic was forced upon the lines of this company. This resulted in creating a delay on this class of traffic to such an extent that it was impossible to give a satisfactory service. Under these circumstances the company found it necessary to temporarily suspend this class of traffic until such time as the situation again becomes normal.

Outbreak Feared at Daylight.

Youngstown, Jan. 8.—After a night of looting and arson at the hands of a drunken mob, the situation in East Youngstown was gradually being gotten under control early today, but the authorities expressed fear there would be another outbreak at night.

The fire which had destroyed between forty and fifty buildings was still raging but the streets have been partially cleared of rioters and the fire department has been brought here from Youngstown to combat the flames.

Shortly after midnight reports were received that rioters had started toward Youngstown, threatening trouble. Deputy sheriffs left at once to meet the rioters in the city. According to telephone reports, liquor crazed men were drinking stolen whiskey from buckets in the fire-lit streets of East Youngstown.

The situation was tense, however, and few expressed fear that rioting might be resumed momentarily. For practically six hours crowds of men, many maddened with drink, ran through the streets, smashing windows of buildings with clubs and then running on and on.

The rioters then would loot the place and apply the torch.

NO QUORUM POINT BREAKS UP MEETING CHARTER COMMITTEE

BOTH WACO TEAMS WIN FROM MARLIN

HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS PILE UP A SCORE OF 40 TO 0, BOYS OF 36 TO 13.

Waco Boys Will Play Gatesville There This Afternoon—Rosalie Jameson Star of Evening.

Continuing by common consent, the charter committee at its first meeting after the holidays, last night adopted the report of the sub-committee on boundaries over which there was no discussion before the point of no quorum was raised by Judge R. A. Word. Chairman Seth P. Mills eluded the necessity of sustaining the point by asking for a motion to adjourn. Thirteen members were present, the number necessary for a quorum being fifteen.

The report of the sub-committee to which was referred the suggestion of City Attorney John Maxwell that the boundaries of the city as extended in a recent election be incorporated in the draft of the amended charter which the committee will submit for a vote at the general elections in April was accepted and approved, constituting the only definite action of the committee last night.

The point of no quorum was raised by Judge Word during the discussion of the report of the sub-committee having in hand the drafting of an amendment to the provision of the charter creating a board of health.

The report of the sub-committee on tax payments, which was made a special order of business for the meeting was deferred upon motion of Judge Word, after it became apparent that the point of no quorum would be raised by a minority member at the beginning of the session.

Philos Carry Off Honors in Annual Connally Debate

Baylor Soccer Team Plays in Dallas Today

The Philomathians won the annual inter-society debate last night in Carroll chapel. G. J. Rousseau won the first prize which was $50, given by Tom Connally of Marlin. E. D. Guthrie of the Philomathians won second place, and F. A. Godsoe of the Erisophians won third place. The decision of the judges was delayed over continued balloting, and for a long time the matter was undecided, the judges being tied on two men for first place.

All of the speeches were above the standard in ordinary college debate. The questions were "Resolved" that all corporations doing interstate business should be required to take out a federal charter, constitutionally conceded, and further agreed that a federal license shall not be available as an alternative." The Philos defended the negative side of the question, the Erisophians having the affirmative.

The meeting was opened with an invocation by Dr. Hall, following which came a piano solo by Miss Tommie Andrews, and the decision of the tie judges.

The judges were C. E. Evans, J. D. Holcomb, F. P. Culver, E. J. Clark and A. C. Ferguson.

After the decision the winners, according to college custom, had an oyster feast, which was served in the new cafeteria. Mrs. Collins had made arrangements to feed a large crowd, 130 being served in exactly six minutes. The young ladies were permitted to take part in the feast by the winning society.

The American legation today authorized the following statement:

"The American legation will be delighted to extend the Ford party to all citizens traveling abroad, as the courtesy to which they are entitled. They will have the opportunity to see some of the most interesting parts of the country, and the architecture and doubtless will have a peaceful, instructive stay in Holland American tourists."

Fifty Rioters Arrested.

Fifty rioters were arrested by the police and placed in the East Youngstown lockup. When the police were compelled to leave the jail in order to patrol the fire zone, about 100 rioters congregated about the place and threatened to forcibly release the men. Mayor W. H. Cunningham at once swore in fifty deputies and ordered them to remain on duty at the jail throughout the night.

All available guards were employed by the Iron and Tube plants to protect their plants.

"The plant will remain closed until such time as the proper authorities see fit to provide protection to those employees who are willing and anxious to work but are prevented from going to their work by mobs formed from the ranks of those who have quit the employ of the company," said President James A. Campbell of the Youngstown Sheet and Tube company in a statement tonight.

The outbreak tonight did not come as a surprise to the residents of East Youngstown. All day the entrances to the steel mills were watched by crowds of men armed with heavy clubs, knives and revolvers, and men who attempted to enter the plants were driven away by threats of violence. As the day advanced the crowd began hurling stones and clubs at workmen. Lunch baskets were taken and destroyed. Street cars were stopped and workmen forcibly removed. Cars were bombarded with stones and windows broken when motormen failed to stop at the command of the mob leaders.

Two Regiments on Way.

By the Associated Press.

Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 7.—Two regiments of the Ohio National guard, comprising more than 1,500 men, tonight were on their way to Youngstown to assist local authorities in quelling rioting which broke out late today in connection with the strike of steel workers in that city, while another regiment was mobilizing in this city with orders to proceed to Youngstown immediately.

Before daybreak tomorrow it was expected that the 2,600 guardsmen under command of Brig. Gen. John C. Speaks of Columbus would be in Youngstown ready for duty.

In addition the battalion of engineers, Ohio National guard, the four companies of which have headquarters in Cleveland, late tonight was ordered to Youngstown. The battalion will add 200 men to the total of troops ordered out for duty in connection with the rioting.

The saloons not only in Youngstown but in Mahoning and Trumbull counties will be closed as a result of the rioting. An order closing the saloons in the two counties was issued tonight by the state license commission.

Would Keep Sugar Off Free List.

By the Associated Press.

Washington, Jan. 7.—Senator Broussard of Louisiana today introduced a joint resolution which would suspend the provisions of the tariff law putting sugar on the free list May 1, 1916.

The resolution was referred to the senate finance committee, which later is expected to recommend its adoption.

Another resolution by Senator Broussard would grant consent of the United States to the state of Louisiana to institute in the supreme court a suit to determine whether the tariff law is being properly construed with respect to the sugar duties.

To Investigate Railroad Laws.

By the Associated Press.

Washington, Jan. 7.—President Wilson's suggestion to congress that a commission be formed to inquire into legislation affecting railroads was reflected today in the adoption by the senate interstate commerce committee of Senator Newlands' resolution to create a joint commission to investigate the adequacy of railway legislation and the interstate commerce commission with a view to making recommendations to congress next December.

Deferred Traffic Suspended.

Special to the Morning News.

New York, Jan. 7.—The Commercial Cable Company announces that owing to the interruption of other communication facilities and the suspension by them of their cheaper fares of service at the end of December an extraordinary amount of deferred traffic was forced upon the lines of this company. This resulted in creating a delay on this class of traffic to such an extent that it was impossible to give a satisfactory service. Under these circumstances the company found it necessary to temporarily suspend this class of traffic until such time as the situation again becomes normal.

Arkansas Justice Suggested.

Ford Party to Reach The Hague Today

By the Associated Press.

The Hague, Jan. 7.—Two hundred and ten members of the Henry Ford peace expedition will reach The Hague at 11 o'clock Saturday morning. No restrictions have been placed by the authorities for their reception, the case in Denmark. The attitude of the Dutch authorities toward the party may be described as benevolently passive.

The American legation today authorized the following statement:

"The American will be delighted to extend to the Ford party, as private American citizens traveling abroad, all the courtesy to which they are entitled. They will have the opportunity to see some of the treasures of painting and architecture, and doubtless will have a peaceful, instructive stay in Holland American tourists."

NO QUORUM POINT BREAKS UP MEETING CHARTER COMMITTEE

BOTH WACO TEAMS WIN FROM MARLIN

HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS PILE UP A SCORE OF 40 TO 0, BOYS OF 36 TO 13.

Waco Boys Will Play Gatesville There This Afternoon—Rosalie Jameson Star of Evening.

Continuing by common consent, the charter committee at its first meeting after the holidays, last night adopted the report of the sub-committee on boundaries over which there was no discussion before the point of no quorum was raised by Judge R. A. Word Chairman Seth P. Mills eluded the question of sustaining the point by asking for a motion to adjourn. Thirteen members were present, the number necessary for a quorum being fifteen.

The report of the sub-committee which was referred the suggestion of City Commissioner John Maxwell that the boundaries of the city as extended in the recent election be incorporated in the draft of the amended charter which the committee will submit for a vote at the general elections in April was accepted and approved, constituting the only definite action of the committee last night.

The point of no quorum was raised by Judge Word during the discussion of the report of the sub-committee having to hand the drafting of an amendment to the provision of the charter creating a board of health.

The report of the sub-committee on tax payments, which was made a special order of business for the meeting was deferred upon motion of Judge Word, after it became apparent that the point of no quorum would be raised by a minority member at the beginning of the session.

Boys Begin to Arrive.

Col. Charles C. Brattain, of the Eighth regiment, Ohio National Guard, conferred early today with Sheriff Umstead regarding the disposition of troops which are expected to arrive here later in the morning.

One of the buildings attacked by the mob was that in which the postoffice was located. According to reports, rioters forced their way into the building, compelled a man who was on duty at the time to open the safe and then looted the place.

Before daybreak tomorrow it was

AMICABLE LIFE COMPANY MAKES BIG SHOWING

DECLARES CASH DIVIDEND TO STOCKHOLDERS OF 8 PER CENT, AMOUNTING TO $65,000.

SOCIAL SERVICE COMMITTEE GETS MANY SUGGESTIONS

CO-OPERATION PLEDGED ENCOURAGES MEMBERS TO PROCEED WITH DEFINITE PLAN.

The remarkable annual statement of the Amicable Life Insurance company will be found in this issue of the Waco Morning News. The Amicable Life is one of the biggest financial institutions in the entire South, with admitted assets of some $2,500,000. These assets are gilt-edge and have been approved by the department of banking and insurance as such. The Amicable Life declared its cash dividend this year of $65,500, or 8 per cent. This will be distributed among the stockholders, many of whom are residents of Waco and McLennan county.

This giant financial institution has proven itself a great asset to the city of Waco. The bank deposits of Waco are in excess of $7,250,000, and the Amicable, always with funds to meet any contingency, plays no small part in swelling the bank deposits of the Waco banks. This company has also been of great assistance to the citizenship in financing them in the way of loans on good McLennan county real estate, and has assisted materially in the development of Waco and this section of Texas.

President Artemas R. Roberts of this big financial institution is like the company and the great home office building—he stands out pre-eminently among the insurance men of this country.

J. M. Spencer Dies at Home of Son Here

J. M. Spencer, father of Dr. Alex Spencer, died at his apartment, 529 North Eleventh street, yesterday afternoon at 2:45. Mr. Spencer was born at Fayetteville, Ark., November 18, 1838. He was past 77 years of age.

Mr. Spencer removed to Texas when only nine years old, locating at Bastrop. He had been a Christian and a member of the Baptist church since eighteen years old. His wife died about four years ago, and he had felt this bereavement very keenly. The nearest relative who survives him is his son, Dr. Alex Spencer, of this city.

Spencer was consistent Christian of noble ideals and especially charitable toward the poor and needy. He never turned a deaf ear to an appeal from those in distressed circumstances. He was dearly beloved by all who knew him, and his circle of acquaintances was large. His was a lofty, and noble character, and his example was worthy of emulation.

A brief funeral service will be held at the residence of Mrs. J. H. Boyett, 529 North Eleventh street, at 10:30 o'clock this morning. Rev. Dr. F. S. Groner, pastor of Columbus Street Baptist church, will conduct the service. The remains will then be removed to Temple, where another service attended by friends from different sections of the state will be conducted in the First Baptist church. Dr. J. M. Dawson, pastor of the First Baptist church in this city, will conduct the funeral at Temple.

The pall bearers for the service this morning will be—Active—C. S. Elsleiberger, Jr., R. H. Berry, Dr. J. F. Smartt, Dr. W. L. Crosthwait, J. N. Lemond, D. P. Wallace, Honorary—O. W. Weatherby, W. F. Barclay, J. P. Brewington, Dr. W. S. Witte, Dr. D. A. McCall and Thomas P. Stone.

Mayor Riggins Declares Will Stage "Come-Back"

Due to the fact that the announcement had gone out that the proposed address of Mayor J. W. Riggins on how to lost the hotel which bears his name had been postponed until a later date, the crowd that gathered at the city hall to hear him last night was not as large as it doubtless would have been, only about 100 men being present. But when the mayor was asked to give the crowd whether he should defer his address until later, so as to permit more people to hear it, or proceed with it last night the crowd voted to hear him last night and he spoke for about an hour.

The speaker reviewed the conditions in the city preceding the erection of the hotel, the efforts of the commercial organizations to induce the building of a new hotel by putting up a bonus of $50,000, and the statements which he had accepted the offer and put up the hotel. He went into considerable detail on how he financed the proposition, and then related in full the difficulties he had in trying to get extensions on the payments to the Mercantile Trust company, who advanced considerable money for the erection of the structure, as they fell due. This was largely a personal story and the mayor's reference to certain members of the firm were of a hazardous nature and can not be published. He expressed deep appreciation of the efforts of the citizens of Waco who labored with him in an effort to get extensions on the payments and who helped him otherwise and declared that now that he had built the hotel and lost it, along with his savings of many years he was going to sell his home and move to a heavy he is going to end it and is going to come back. He said he did not know just what form his comeback would take but said that by the time another year rolled around the papers would be able to announced that he had come back and recouped at least a portion of his fortune.

And he expects to make his return right here in Waco, he said. "I want to be right here, gentlemen," he declared in conclusion, "and you build here the greatest and the best city in the world—I mean Texas, for that is the greatest world I have known. I have had a burning ambition to see Waco the best city in Texas, and it ought to be, and I believe it will be."

Many of the mayor's statements were applauded and the whole crowd joined in the demonstration when he declared his determination to overcome his losses and that within a short time.

Photographers May Be Ousted from Photoplay

Automatic Picture Making Device Employed First Time in "Green-eyed Monster."

That the photoplay camera man may eventually be done away with is the opinion of those who have seen J. Gordon Edwards' automatic photoplay camera, an invention to which Mr. Edwards has been devoting much time when not engaged in directing William Fox photoplays. Mr. Edwards believes that he is amply protected on the invention and feels no hesitancy about discussing it.

The device consists of a small motor attachment for the ordinary motion picture camera. It can be regulated to "grind" at any desired speed and can be instantly adjusted for varying degrees of light. In studio work it can be connected with any electric plug and in "location" work it can be operated by batteries or by a series of springs.

It is intended to be used by the director himself, who may start or stop the camera mechanism by the mere pressure of a push button. The button is at the end of a length of fine wire sufficiently long to permit the director to operate the camera while at a distance from it.

If the device proves to be a success and comes into general use it is predicted that it will mean a big yearly saving in waste film. The automatic camera is now being used for the first time in several of the scenes of the William Fox masterpiece, "Green-Eyed Monster."

Bell's Hill Company Elects Officers

The Bell's Hill Engine Company No. 5 took part in the annual election of officers for the company and also possum and accessories in the meeting of the members held Thursday night. At this meeting an exemption badge was presented to Foreman Frank Oldham, who had lost the one previously given him by the company in the fire which destroyed his home about two months ago.

Delegates to the department elected last night were: W. R. Todd, Geo. Darragh and S. L. Jones. The regular officers elected were: Foreman, Frank Oldham; first assistant foreman, W. R. Todd; second assistant foreman, Joe Wright; secretary, E. S. Stewart; treasurer, S. L. Jones. These men were all re-elected for the offices which they had served for the past year. The installation will take place at the February meeting.

CLUB WOMEN TO CONFER ON SOCIAL WORK ON FARMS

CO-OPERATION WITH RURAL WOMEN TO IMPROVE CONDITIONS.

Co-operation between the women of the city and rural districts, looking toward the improvement of social conditions on the farms of McLennan county, a conference of leading club women of the city will be held at 10 o'clock this morning with Mrs. J. L. Landrum at the Riggins hotel. The conference will be participated in by members of the rural life, library extension and home economics committees of the City Federation of Women's clubs, and by others interested.

The aim of the conference will be to formulate some definite plan for improving extension and similar work for women and children of the rural districts. The plan will probably include establishing circulating libraries, organizing boys and girls' school clubs, canning clubs, pig clubs, and home economics clubs for the farm housewives. The conference will be presided over by Mrs. Landrum, who is the state supervisor and organizer of canning club work of the state department of agriculture. Mrs. Landrum has made her headquarters for the last several weeks for organization work in central Texas.

Chairmen of the three city federation committees which are especially invited to participate in the conference this morning are Mrs. R. H. Hill, rural life; Mrs. E. E. Fitzhugh, library extension; Mrs. F. J. Lennox, home economics.

It was erroneously stated in news paper reports yesterday afternoon that the conference would be presided over by Mrs. J. L. Darwin.

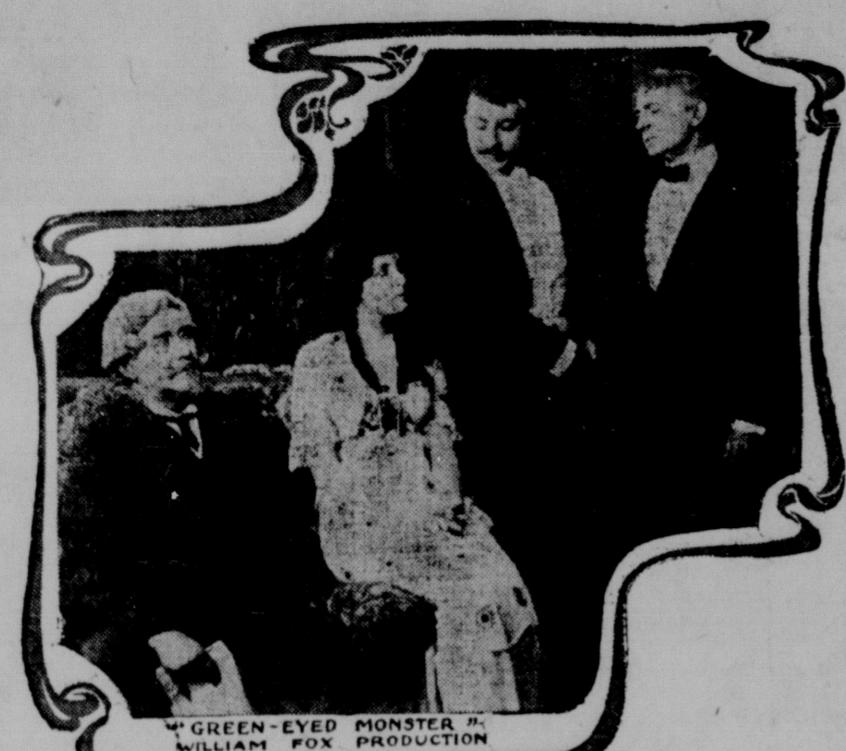

Waco Recruiting Station Holds High Place in District

Waco holds second place in the southwestern district of navy recruiting offices, according to the information received by Officer J. F. Hair, who is in charge of the local office. The number sent to the head station at Dallas during the month of December was 18, of which 9 were accepted. The total number of applicants for enlistment were 51.

Heading the list was Wichita Falls with 18 to its credit. Muskogee tied Waco in the number accepted, but had fewer applicants.

Officer Hair is in receipt of a complimentary letter from Lieutenant Cunningham regarding the showing made by the Waco office. The latter speaks very highly of the station here and of the officer in charge.

Waco's record for the week ending December 31 is highest of the district, having four applicants accepted at the Dallas headquarters. The total number of applications for the week was also the highest of all offices in the district, up to 16. The present week will probably lead all other offices, as Officer Hair has already sent five applicants to Dallas.

Considering the small number of vacancies in the department the record made by the Waco office is unusually high as the examination of the men is more rigid than when the ranks were more depleted. The record of men enlisting from the Waco station is about the highest of any station and Officer Hair is largely given credit for attracting them.

How to Give Quinine to Children

FEVERLINE is the trade-mark name given to an improved Quinine. It is a Tasteful Syrup, pleasant to take, and does not disturb the stomach. Children take it and never know it is Quinine. "The Green-Eyed Monster."

The gripping Fox drama, "The Green-Eyed Monster," that is showing at the Hippodrome, was dictated without a pause by Miss Nixola, the scenario writer for the company over the telephone from Lebannon, N. H., to a camerographer in New York. Miss Daniels was attending a house party, and when during an evening reception the idea of this play came to her, she excused herself, called up Mr. Fox, and without stopping dictated the entire scenario. Robert B. Mantell, his beautiful wife, Genevieve Hamlin and Stuart Holmes are the principals in this strong denunciation of overpowering jealousy. Henry Leone, Pauline Barron, W. H. Burton and the child actor, Charles Crumpton, are others in the cast.

Two brothers, Raymond and Louis de Mornay, are much in love with their cousin, Claire. Raymond, the elder, has for sometime been infatuated with the beautiful girl before the younger brother returns from the French army. The girl is attracted by the younger man and his ardent wooing and marriage him without knowing of the love of Raymond. Raymond leaves France and goes to Vienna. In a life of riotous living he tries to forget but is not successful. Later he is called back to France to the bedside of his dying father, and the sight of Claire and the discovery that Louis has an affair with the family governess inflames Raymond's jealousy. Following his father, however, Raymond again leaves home and goes to India. Several years later his little nephew writes him to come home and live with them. Raymond believes the old infatuation has passed and returns with many curios including a huge chest of odd designs. He discovers that his brother is still leading a double life, and the sight of Claire brings back the old love and jealousy. By slow poison he kills Louis and hides his body in the big chest. The horrible results and retribution must be seen to be appreciated. "The Green-Eyed Monster" will play today only.

DUN'S REVIEW.

By the Associated Press. New York, Jan. 7.—Dun's review will say tomorrow.

Preparations for the further extension of American enterprise are undertaken with increased vigor at the end of the holiday season. Domestic finance and conditions super-abundant for all legitimate requirements, while there is no lack in the chief essential to the launching and promotion of important projects.

In the last reported present conditions afford a striking contrast to those existing twelve months ago and, moreover, all of the statistical barometers emphasize the changed situation prevailing at the opening of the new year starts with a record production and distribution—at high prices—in many lines, and an accumulation of forward contracts that insure a continuation of the exceptional activities in all branches of business. With comparatively few exceptions, annual settlements have been effected without serious strain and in a number of instances of involves a surpass even the most sanguine expectations. Weekly bank clearings $4,567,201.042.

One of the most interesting features ever presented in an American newspaper will appear in the Waco Morning News, entitled "WHO'S WHO IN WACO."

There are too many people in the present day limelight for an approach to their single identity.

They are all "WHO'S WHO" and so are all the rest of us, potentially.

The question—are you a "close" observer or only a "casual" one?

There will be many of them.

MARKET REPORTS

COTTON

New York.

By the Associated Press. New York, Jan. 7.—The cotton market was easier yesterday and irregular today, but in early session to 12.44 for March, followed by a sharp advance in the late trading with that position selling up to 12.60. The close was very steady and firm, 12.60 to 12.62 per pound.

Liverpool was high and due to the market here opened steady at an advance of 3 to 7 points in sympathy. As was the case yesterday, the advance was accompanied by heavy buying here by houses with Liverpool connections to undo straddles and prices have worked $3 per bale or more lower the low level prevailing since before the holidays.

Other buyers have indicated an improvement in export demand and spot prices have advanced also but it is said that hedges were sold here again partly of these gains.

Contracts here being enforceable only as soon as the railway embargo in the east is removed.

Contractors way with wheat despite some sales to Europe and notwithstanding new high record quotations at Liverpool.

Oats reflected the action of corn.

Prices were squared because of the down-tum in the hog market and in grain. Packers were on the selling side.

CLUB WOMEN TO CONFER ON SOCIAL WORK ON FARMS

CO-OPERATION WITH RURAL WOMEN TO IMPROVE CONDITIONS.

Co-operation between the women of the city and rural districts, looking toward the improvement of social conditions on the farms of McLennan county, a conference of leading club women of the city will be held at 10 o'clock this morning with Mrs. J. L. Landrum at the Riggins hotel. The conference will be participated in by members of the rural life, library extension and home economics committees of the City Federation of Women's clubs, and by others interested.

The aim of the conference will be to formulate some definite plan of immediate extension work among the women and children in the rural districts. The plan will probably include establishing circulating libraries, organizing boys and girls' school clubs, canning clubs, pig clubs, and home economics clubs for the farm housewives. The conference will be presided over by Mrs. Landrum, who is the state supervisor and organizer of canning club work of the state department of agriculture. Mrs. Landrum has made Waco her headquarters for the last several weeks for organization work in central Texas.

Chairmen of the three city federations which are especially invited to participate in the conference this morning are Mrs. R. H. Hill, rural life; Mrs. E. E. Fitzhugh, library extension; Mrs. F. J. Lennox, home economics.

It was erroneously stated in news-paper reports yesterday afternoon that the conference would be presided over by Mrs. J. L. Darwin.

Waco Recruiting Station Holds High Place in District

Waco holds second place in the southwestern district of navy recruiting offices, according to the information received by Officer J. F. Hair, who is in charge of the local office. The number sent to the head station at Dallas during the month of December was 18, of which 9 were accepted. The total number of applicants for enlistment were 51.

Heading the list was Wichita Falls with 18 to its credit. Muskogee tied Waco in the number accepted, but had fewer applicants.

Officer Hair is in receipt of a complimentary letter from Lieutenant Cunningham regarding the showing made by the Waco office. The latter speaks very highly of the station here and of the officer in charge.

At The Hippodrome.

Hippodrome today.

Waco's record for the week ending December 31 is highest of the district, having four applicants accepted at the Dallas headquarters. The total number of applications for the week was also the highest of all offices in the district being 16. The present week will probably lead all other offices, as Officer Hair has already sent five applicants to Dallas.

Considering the small number of vacancies in the department the record made by the Waco office is unusually high as the examination of the men is more rigid than when the ranks were more depleted. The class of men enlisting from the Waco station is about the highest of any station and Officer Hair is largely given credit for attracting them.

How to Give Quinine to Children

FERRILINE is the trade-name given to an improved Quinine. It is a Tincture, syrup, pleasant to take, and does not disturb the stomach. Children take it and never know it is Quinine. Also especially adapted to adults who cannot take ordinary Quinine because it causes nervousness nor ringing in the head. Try it the next time you need Quinine for any purpose. Ask for 2-ounce original package. The name FERRILINE is blown in bottle. 25 cents.
